

Community Consulting Teams | Boston

bringing MBA business expertise to Boston area nonprofits since 1990

July 2016

In This Issue

Now Accepting Project Applications

CCT 2016 Musical Review

Introducing Our Board

CCT Fun Facts

Visit The Umbrella Show

CCT Wrap-up Event

Volunteer Profile - Stew Chapin

Did someone forward this email to you?

Join Our Mailing List!

Important Date

August 15:
First round client application deadline

Stay Connected

Join our LinkedIn Group

View our profile on LinkedIn

Now Accepting Nonprofit Project Applications

We are accepting pro bono consulting grant applications for the 2017 project cycle. Now is the time to contact Boston-area nonprofits that might benefit from a CCT project. Please help us to spread the word!

Interested 501(c)(3) nonprofits can find complete information at www.cctboston.org/clients. First round applications are due by August 15, while the final deadline for all applications is September 15. Questions? - contact client@cctboston.org

Don't Miss It! A Musical Review of CCT 2016

Introducing CCT's 2016-2017 Board Members

- Board Chair - Gabriele Loebbert
- Vice-Chair - Carolyn McGuire
- Advancement - Carol Krauss
- Client Development - Stewart Chapin, Lorri Veidenheimer
- Business School Relations - Alison French
- Volunteer Relations - Julie Rowe, Valerie Godhwani
- Infrastructure - Robbie Burnstine, George West
- Marketing - Elizabeth Atkin
- Project Management - Sandie Eltringham
- Treasurer - Ariel Acuna
- Honorary Board Members - Jeanne Blauner, Tricia Craig, Nancy Csaplar, Ezra Gordon, Carol Lidington, Mimi Macksoud, Jill Tsakiris

CCT Fun Facts

1. What is the CCT Advance?
 - a. New CCT board members are selected in "advance" of this meeting
 - b. CCT tradition where volunteers eat and drink thus advancing their collective weight
 - c. CCT board event to assess priorities and decide upon new initiatives for the upcoming project cycle

2. Carl Krauss raised puppies for which former CCT Client?
 - a. Boston Rescue Mission
 - b. Rosie's Place
 - c. NEADS

3. Approximately how many projects has CCT completed since inception?
 - a. 69
 - b. 191
 - c. 219

4. What was the name of CCT's first client in 1990?
 - a. Jobs for Youth
 - b. Mother Caroline Academy
 - c. Big Sister Association of Greater Boston

Answers:

1. Answer c. CCT's Advance is a full day retreat in the spring for the CCT board. The board reviews project cycle results and then decides on priorities and new initiatives for the upcoming year.

2. Answer c. Carl became a volunteer weekend puppy raiser for NEADS Dogs for Deaf and Disabled Americans after working on the 2010 NEADS project. She participated for four years working with many dogs on a short-term basis and raising two puppies fully to graduation both of which went to combat veterans with severe PTSD. Carl is now active on the NEADS Advisory Council in place of being a weekend puppy raiser.

3. Answer b. According to our records, CCT has completed approximately 191 projects since inception.

4. Answer a. CCT Founder, Andrew Feiler, tells us that Jobs for Youth was CCT's first project. Andrew had heard the Executive Director talk about the organization on WBUR.

Visit the Umbrella Gallery Show

Visit CCT client The Umbrella's gallery for a show featuring our own Carl Krauss!

Another Great Year at CCT!

Ninety-eight Volunteers, Clients, and special guests enjoyed our 2016 year-end wrap-up festivities at the Microsoft NERD Center in celebration of the completion of this year's projects. A good time was had by all with food, fun, and vibrant conversation. CCT clients were able to share the experiences of working with their CCT teams and their expected benefits from the project deliverables. Co-chairs Carol Krauss and Gabriele Loebbert conveyed appreciation to both clients and volunteers for their contribution to a successful project cycle.

Volunteer Profile - Stewart Chapin

Ready and Willing to Guide Potential Clients

Stew is in his second year on the CCT Board heading up the Client Development group. He and his team are responsible for client outreach and assisting potential clients in the grant application process. When applications are submitted in August and September, he will be leading the difficult task of client evaluation and selection.

When thinking about CCT clients, Stew feels that he "knew them when their projects were, in many cases, just rough ideas. Following the review and refining process, when client finalists were presented, the client development team hoped that CCT volunteers would feel just as jazzed about them. Months later, after project completion, the 'graduating' clients are at last ready to put counsel into action. And we're ready to start all over again with next year's class!"

Please let Stew know if there is a Boston-area nonprofit you would like to refer to CCT or if you represent a nonprofit interested in applying for a CCT project! You can email Stew at client@cctboston.org

Stew's CCT Story

A Tuck MBA, Stew joined the CCT Board after serving as a co-project manager on three CCT projects, one with the Asperger's Association of New England and two with Roca. During the most recent project cycle, along with his client development role, Stew sponsored the Just-A-Start project. For several years, he had also been involved on the client development committee, an experience that helped him decide that he really wanted to devote more time to the client relationship aspect of CCT.

Stew's Other Interests

In addition to his role with CCT, Stew is on the Board of Directors at Roca and the Advisory Board of Youth Harbors/Rediscovery, now part of the Justice Resource Institute (JRI). He is a trustee of the Bennett Family Foundation, with a grant making focus on the issues facing teens and young adults. He enjoys photography, travel and relaxing at the beach or lake.

A Marketing and Technology Background

Stew spent over 20 years in marketing and senior management for technology companies. His positions have ranged from senior roles at Microsoft and AT&T Wireless to management, advisor, and investor roles with several technology startups. He graduated from Dartmouth College in 1977, and received his MBA as an Edward Tuck Scholar at Dartmouth's Amos Tuck School of Business in 1982.

CCT Boston | info@cctboston.org | www.cctboston.org

Copyright © 2016. All Rights Reserved.